About Me

I have been teaching at Clifton Hall School since 2020 and have loved every minute of it. Over the years, I have particularly enjoyed working with our youngest learners, which is why I am so excited about the launch of the Cedar Early Years Centre. I am passionate about creating a nurturing environment where children can learn, explore and grow. Meaningful play is at the heart of early childhood education, helping children develop confidence, social skills, curiosity and a lifelong love of learning.
